For sheriff.

In the proper column will be found this afternoon the announcement that Mr. J. P. Naylor or Moody, is a candidate for the office of sheriff of McLennan county and THE NEWS takes pleasure in bearing testimony to the eminent fitness of this gentleman for the office. The writer first knew Mr. Naylor 15 years ago when the county was new and things rougher than they are now.
Mr. Naylor was for a long time deputy sheriff under Mr. Pete Ross and he made a splendid record in those days which tried an officer's soul. He is a gentleman of great ability, inimitable pluck ready resources and a man of sterling integrity and kindly disposition. There is no old settler but will endorse him in all respects. Mr. Naylor would make an excellent sheriff and those unacquainted with him may vote for him in all safety:

LAST NIGHT'S DRILL.

Central Station Firemen Again in the Lead.

The Hose and Hook and Ladder companies of the Central fire station drilled last night—the former on South Fourth and the latter on South Sixth streets. The participants in the drill of the Hook and Ladder company were: Frank Crow, foreman; Ed Wilsford, driver; Russell Robertson, Lon Zeigler, Wiley Flowers, Mack Wilson, Clayton Wor-sham, Jim Lockwood and Jack Crow.
Six runs were made a distance of one block and all the ladders on the truck raised on a building in the short average time of thirty-two seconds.

The drill of the Central Hose company under the foremanship of Mr.
Sam Owens was had at the corner of Webster and South Third streets.
Two runs were made, first at the corner of Third and Cleveland but they were entirely unsuccessful on account of the defective plug at that point, and the company then repaired to the corner of Webster and South Third streets where in three runs the record of any former time was exceeded by running one block and 150 feet, unrelaxing three sections of hose, attaching it to the plug and fixing the nozzle in the following time:

First run, 45, second 38 and third, 37 seconds, being the best time ever made by the city.

The watch was held by Mr. Chester Kennedy, commonly known as "Chess," the affable chief of the Hillsboro fire department who was astonished at the proficiency of the Waco boys. He says that Waco has done much for her fire department. THE NEWS reporter might add with equal force that Waco's fire department has done much for Waco.

A MOB AT SHERMAN.

TWO THOUSAND MEN PARADE THE STREETS AND

Explore the County Jail, But Fail to Find Massey, the Supposed Murderer of the Smith Family, Who Has Been Spirited Away by the Sheriff.

SHERMAN, Tex., March 3.—The attempted murder of the Smith family a mile east of Sherman, consisting of father, mother and two children, and for which Sam Wynne, alias Massey, was arrested on the statement of the little boy that "Sam did it," is still keeping the people of this city and vicinity greatly excited, and is on the tongue of every man and a mob raid upon the Houston street prison is openly predicted and while the sheriff has not said as much it is evident that he is somewhat apprehensive.

Mrs. Smith rallied a little and then grew worse, but at this hour she seemed a little better, though she has not yet recovered consciousness, notwithstanding the fact that it has been about forty-eight hours since the assault occurred.
One of the little boys has been growing worse all day and Mr. Smith is still prostrated.

Drs. Michael, Wright and Freeman said late this afternoon that while they did not appreciate any immediate likelihood of death they were very dangerous cases.

When all of Court plaza was lined and crowded with men some one cried, "On to Houston street!" and in ten minutes the jail yard was swarming with a wild and frenzied crowd 200 strong.
Some one battered away at the north door of the prison and in a moment it was opened and the crowd rushed in.

Warden McKinney and Turnkey McAfee told them that the prisoner Sam Massey, was not in the jail. The crowd refused to believe them and demanded that the prison be thrown open. To this the officers of the prison acquiesced and corridor after corridor and cell after cell was carefully searched, but nowhere from the cupola to the dungeon below the ground could the negro be found, and at last maddened and infuriated, the crowd withdrew from the prison and began searching the residences of the officers.

About this time Sheriff McAfee drove up to the Rusk street gate and announced that long ago the prisoner, in charge of deputies, had been speeding on his way south, a train having been flagged at the Cotton Belt crossing and boarded there by the officers with the prisoner. At this hour the crowd has virtually dispersed from the vicinity of the jail, but are gathered in knots of from 50 to 100 at the street corners discussing the matter.

Deep disappointment is everywhere expressed and while it is generally believed the prisoner had been spirited away by officers, there are doubts of his having been taken to Dallas and squads are searching high and low for some clue to his whereabouts and it is believed that if at any time between now and daylight 500 determined men can be centralized in ten minutes.

To Subscribers.

Those who are in arrears on sub-

Another Accident.

Another painful accident occurred this morning to a colored man, whose name could not be learned, but who is an employee of the Cotton Belt railway as coal heaver. He fell from a coal car while in motion and the wheels passed over three of his fingers which were so badly mashed as to require amputation. Dr. O. W.
Wilkes, assisted by Dr. W. R. Ferrell, performed the operation.
